

CLAIRE CHANNING

Claire Channing began her career in interior design before turning her attention to retail fashion styling and advertising work. A natural flair for décor and interiors combined with her passion for style, Claire is particularly talented as a props stylist too. Her attention to detail and creative expertise have earned her high regard in the industry. A natural people person, Claire remains calm and focused under pressure and her patient nature makes her especially talented at working with kids. Claire has earned a reputation for her commitment and dedication to her work, as well as her can-do attitude. She thrives on finding solutions to always deliver the highest quality work that is on brief.

Claire has styled for major retail clients including Mr Price Apparel, Mr Price Sport, Sheet Street, Ackermans, Dunns, Jeep, Shoe City, Corona Beer, NYE TIMBER English Sparkling Wine and Markhams amongst others.
